DUTY TO CONSULT

In the Haida and Taku River decisions in 2004, and the Mikisew Cree decision in 2005, the Supreme Court of Canada held that the Crown has a duty to consult and, where appropriate, accommodate when the Crown contemplates conduct that might adversely impact potential or established Aboriginal or Treaty rights.

Meliadine gold mine's environmental impact statement short on traditional knowledge: KIA

“Inuit communities of the Kivalliq region have many generations of accumulated observation”

NUNATSIAQ NEWS

While Agnico Eagle Mines has made efforts to incorporate Inuit Qaujimagatuqangit in the research and development of its Meliadine gold project, the Kivalliq Inuit Association has asked the company to consider using more traditional knowledge as the company seeks approval to open its second gold mine in Nunavut.

The KIA is one of a handful of organizations that have submitted comments this month in response to Meliadine's final environmental impact statement \(FEIS\), which AEM released this past spring.
