

CNA2021 Student Participation Program FAQ

What is the CNA Conference and Trade Show (CNA2021) exactly?

CNA2021 is the premier nuclear industry event in Canada. It offers three exciting days of online networking with senior executives, learning from expert speakers and creating important business connections. It is a great opportunity for students interested in a career in nuclear to learn about major industry developments, future trends and career opportunities.

Will attending CNA2021 have any impact on my application for CNA2022?

Yes, attending CNA2021 will have a positive impact on your application for CNA2022. Students who were active participants at the 2021 sessions will be given priority consideration during the CNA2022 application process.

Am I eligible to apply?

If you are a registered student at the time of the event and currently studying at a recognized Canadian post-secondary education institution, then yes!

How do I apply?

This year, there is no application process. Instead, we have 100 reserved spots for students. The first 100 students who register will be able to attend CNA2021. Registrations will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis.

What is the deadline to register for the Student Participation Program?

The deadline to register for the Student Participation Program at CNA2021 is September 10, 2021, at 11:59pm. However, there are only 100 student attendees and spots will fill up quickly, so register early! Registrations must be completed by September 10 at 11:59pm EST.

How do I register?

Click here to register, select the “Non-member” category, and use discount code: StudentCNA2021 to receive a complimentary registration. ## When will successful registrants be notified?

If your registration is successful on the registration page, you have secured your spot for CNA2021 and will receive a confirmation email. Monitor your email for more information as the event approaches.

I registered for CNA2021 but can no longer attend. What should I do?

If you registered but are unable to attend, please let us know so we can give your spot to another student. Reach out to Ashley Amyotte at amyottea@cna.ca

Is CNA2021 taking place virtually?

Yes, CNA2021 is taking place virtually.

I’m looking for in-person events to attend, is the CNA hosting any?

Yes, the CNA is excited to announce our 2022 Conference and Tradeshow, taking place February 23-25, 2022. We are planning for the entirety of CNA2022 to take place in-person at the Westin Hotel in Ottawa, Ontario. Stay tuned for more details, coming soon!
