Cavendish Nuclear operates within the nuclear energy sector and is a business unit of Babcock Canada. At Cavendish Nuclear our mission is simple and drives our behaviour in everything that we do: people who innovate to deliver nuclear services safer, faster and at a lower cost. We do this by leveraging our global workforce of 5,000 highly skilled nuclear specialists, and through the support of our parent company, the Babcock International Group.

Cavendish Nuclear operates across the entire nuclear cycle; from new build and nuclear operations and services – to decommissioning and waste management. We operate at all tiers – from site +

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF YOUR COMPANY'S PRODUCTS AND SERVICES (50-100 WORDS)

Electricity is one of Canada's essential utilities. More than 100,000 Canadians are involved in generating, transmitting and distributing it. Their work powers homes and businesses across the country, fuelling everything from light bulbs, cell phones and refrigerators to water treatment plants and road vehicle assembly lines.

However, in the face of changing demographics and technology, the industry's highly skilled workforce needs to grow and adapt. Electricity Human Resources Canada (EHRC) is all about human resources in Canada's electricity industry – we're an enabler, a research hub, a convener and an active partner helping industry meet these challenges to secure Canada's long-term
